

Hi everyone,

The children have been working on Portraits in our Art sessions.

It is a great activity to develop fine motor, observation and focus skills.

I would really enjoy it if your child could draw a member of your family paying particular attention to faces and features. Families, you can join in too. I look forward to looking at your lovely Artwork !

Miss Kerry

