

Reception

All children can be successful with mathematics, provided that they have opportunities to explore maths in ways that makes personal sense to them and opportunities to develop mathematical concepts and understanding. Reception Willow children really enjoyed the playing snap and dominoes, in the outdoor learning area, to develop their number skills.

