

Year 4

It has been another musical week in Year 4. This week children learnt a song about the wives of Henry VIII. They sang the song using different tones and varied their pitch. In groups, they then wrote their own song to give information about the Tudor times and used instruments to accompany their lyrics.

*Henry VIII was a mighty guy, Marry him and prepare to die!
Henry VIII had six wives,
at first he killed one and was left with five.
Two were beheaded and one died,
but at the end someone survived.
He ate way too many blue berry pies,
and always told lots of lies!
He was known as king but his six sorry wives,
considered him as a nasty guy.*

*Young King Henry was very jolly,
Old King Henry was fat and smelly.
He married six wives,
But gave them terrible lives.
He chopped off their head and wanted them dead!
The last one survived because she was so kind.*

Next week, in Literacy, we will be looking at the features of playscripts. Children will read and perform basic playscripts as well as writing their own. In Maths, we will continue to practise using written methods to solve problems in the context of measure and time.
